Subj: Mixed-Use Redevelopment for 157 Poplar Avenue

Date: 11/16/2007

The two respondents i.e., Buchart Horn and Archimania of our RFP for 157 Poplar Ave Mixed-Use Redevelopment (MXD) were interviewed by the following selection Committee on 15 Nov. 2007.

Jim Huntzicker, Ray Siddiqui, AIA, Melvin Booth and Cliff Norville

Buchart Horn:

Buchart Horn is large National Engineering Firm with presence in Memphis. The firm has limited Architectural resources and experience of the local area and has not designed any significant architectural project in Shelby County TN in the past 3 years or so. This firm presented its structural engineer as the Garage Design Expert and failed to respond adequately to interview questions about project delivery, garage design and project impact in the downtown area.

Archimania:

Archimania is a medium size local Architectural Design firm and distinguishes itself from other design firms by their unique approach to problem solving that results into environmentally friendly, cost effective and aesthetically pleasing architecture. The Firm has approx 15 architectural staff and creates alliances with multiple specialty local design firms as needed. In their response to our RFP, Archimania presented a team consisting of a locally and nationally known Garage Consultants – Walker, MEDFAC Engineering, Self Tucker Architects, Barge Wagner Summer and Canon and ERA know an economic research firm.

Their presentation was concise and relevant to our RFP and their response to interview questions to project delivery, cost, and project impact were excellent.

Based on the foregoing, Ray Siddiqui and I hereby recommend selection of Archimania to design 157 Poplar Ave Mixed Use Redevelopment.

Re: RFP-08-010-27, Mixed Use Redevelopment for 157 Poplar Avenue

Two companies submitted responses to RFP-08-010-27, "Mixed Use Redevelopment for 157 Poplar Avenue".

Bidders	EOC Provision Code	LOSB Vendor
Archimania	D	No
Buchart Horn	C	No

Vendor responses were evaluated on the basis of Project Delivery, Project Execution, Garage Design, and Project Impact in the Downtown area. After a thorough evaluation of the responses by the Consultant Review Committee with representatives from the CAO's Office, the Division of Public Works, the Engineering Department and the Purchasing Department it was determined that Archimania submitted the most responsive proposal.

The Consultant Review Committee selected the most responsive proposal and established an estimated cost based on the needs of the project.

The total estimated amount for Phase 1 is $300,000.00.

Please indicate your response to this selection in the space provided below:
